

Post-Secondary Ready: Everything you need for school

Whether you're a high school graduate venturing into the realm of post-secondary education or a returning student ready to tackle another academic year, being well-prepared is key to success.

From essential school supplies to lifestyle adjustments considerations, we've broken down everything you'll need to thrive academically and personally during your time at school at home, on-campus or abroad.

Staying at Home:

School Supplies:

- Notebooks
- Pens
- Pencils
- Highlighters
- Binders
- Folders
- Calculator
- Laptop or computer
- Printer
- Printer paper
- USB flash drives or external hard drives

Textbooks and Course Materials:

- Required textbooks
- Access codes for online resources
- Required readings
- Supplementary materials specified by instructors

Study Space:

- Desk
- Chair
- Lamp or good lighting
- Bookshelves or organizers

Time Management Tools:

- Planner or calendar
- Time management apps (e.g., Todoist, Trello)
- Alarm clock or timer

Tech:

- Smartphone
- Laptop, iPad, tablet
- Portable mini speaker
- E-reader
- Smart watch
- Noise cancelling headphones
- Printer (if access not provided by school)
- Portable charger

Transportation:

- Public transportation pass
- Gas money (if commuting by car)

Financial Management:

- Budgeting tools or apps
- Bank account
- Savings account
- Part-time job opportunities or sources of income

